BRITAIN'S SHAME

Granny-Rapist Mark Allen

Baby-Mugger Suspect

Baby-Mugger Suspect

Victims: Mrs. Julie Broughton and Kelly-Marie

GRANNIES RAPED – BABIES MUGGED!

BRITAIN is a sick society. It is unable to protect its most defenceless citizens from inhuman racial attacks by savages who are turning our streets into a jungle.

It is a society in which frail old women are subjected to vicious and degrading sexual attacks. It is a society in which babies in their prams are slashed to terrorise their mothers.

With the case of Mark Allen who raped and buggered numerous women in the 80's and 90's – it was thought that Britain had seen its wickedest multi-racial horror.

But since an increasing number of old folk dare not leave their homes in "inner city" areas, sub-human savages have found a new and even more defenceless prey: tiny babies!

SLASHED

On 7th July, in a busy Walworth, South London, street eight-month-old Kelly-Marie Broughton was slashed on her face and legs with a broken bottle by two Black muggers.

As one of the savages told Kelly-Marie's mother, 21-year-old Mrs. Julie Broughton, as she handed over her week's housekeeping, her watch and her wedding rings: "This is how we earn our living."

This 'your money or your baby' trend is not limited to London. Sickening tales of babies being held over the balconies of tower blocks until their mothers handed over their purses come from Bristol, Nottingham and Liverpool.

WHITE TARGETS

We do not suggest that White people don't rape and rob – but Police statistics over the past decade reveal that Blacks perpetrate these crimes out of all proportion to the size of the Black community in Britain, and tend to seek out White victims.

Before the last war it was unheard-of for sex criminals to target geriatric women for rape and buggery attacks and for footpads to threaten babies as a means of inducing mothers to hand over their money.

Indeed, the Police could always count on the active assistance of the 'professional' criminal underworld to catch degenerates who had attacked children or old folk.

The Black community today tends to 'close ranks' to protect even its most depraved members.

BLACK SOLIDARITY

Black youths refused to join identity parades involving the granny rapist Mark Allen, and the Police were forced to hold a parade by sending him up an Underground escalator during the rush hour!

As we go to press, the muggers of baby Kelly-Marie are still at liberty despite extensive circulation of

The media blamed "White racists" for Mohammed Beg's murder. No retractions were forthcoming when Black muggers were proved to be the culprits.

'identikit' pictures and reward offers.

Despite these and a catalogue of similar horrors, the mass media is still trying to create the impression that racial attacks are exclusively perpetrated by White people against Blacks!

Last year the media got up an hysterical campaign against "White racists" after a Pakistani lawyer, Mohammed Beg, was robbed and stabbed to death a few yards from his Balham, South London, home.

Without a shred of evidence, the media trumpeted allegation that the murder had been committed by "Skinheads" or "racist National Front supporters".

No apologies or retractions were forthcoming when two Black muggers – Winston Simpson and Barrington Foster – were convicted of the murder recently.

REIGN OF TERROR

At their trial it emerged that Simpson and Barrington were members of a nine-strong Black gang which had perpetrated 58 muggings during a "reign of terror".

The media's handling of the Beg case is a typical example of the brainwashing campaign that has been directed against the British people in recent years.

The Establishment knows that Black crime is getting out of hand, and knows that the Black criminals tend to target White people (and White-looking Asians) as a sort of revenge for being unable to cope with White civilisation.

Desperate to prevent an awareness of this causing a 'backlash' among White people, the media has been organised to howl about "White racial attacks" so as to give Whites the impression that Blacks are more sinned-against than sinning.

TRUTH IS "RACIST"

The true situation was expressed by Police constable Leslie Tiley giving evidence at a trial of two Black youths at Knightsbridge Crown Court recently:

"The vast majority of street crime which takes place in the West End of London is committed by Black people."

Black lawyers acting for the defendants are making a complaint to the Police about PC Tiley's "racist" comment!

Albert: DPP asked to act

THE OFFICE of the Lord Chancellor has forwarded a report on the riot outside the NF election meeting in Tottenham on 3rd May to the Director of Public Prosecutions with a request that the matter be investigated with a view to possible prosecutions.

The report was compiled by the Committee of the Albert Mariner Public Inquiry Campaign.

During the riot NF member Albert Mariner was hit on the head with a brick and died of a heart attack about 24 hours later.

The news of a proposed DPP investigation was received by the AMPIC Committee on 30th July – the day that they had called for a march and rally in Tottenham to demand an inquiry into Mr. Mariner's death.

The march was banned by two Public Order Act march bans – the first covering the Borough of Haringey, the second covering all other boroughs in North London.

The rally was forbidden by a High Court injunction obtained by Haringey Council at an emergency 'ex parte' hearing.

However, AMPIC Committee members laid a wreath at the spot where Mr. Mariner received his injury, and 500 supporters staged a march followed by a rally in London's West End.

Full reports next issue.

ALL PATRIOTIC
BRITONS WELCOME!

Introducing a Tory creep

THE Honourable Colin Moynihan MP has an impeccable background: public school and Oxford University where he obtained his rowing 'blue' as a cox and also became President of the Oxford Union.

It was perhaps there that he first came across the art of succeeding in politics – never disagree with anyone, never hold strong views on anything and always be prepared to drift with the winds.

His ability in these respects has caused him to rise swiftly up the Tory Party hierarchy – so swiftly that although not yet 30 he is the MP for Lewisham East.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Recently he demonstrated his suitability for yet more advancement. Over the last few years the restoration of capital punishment has been going out of favour with the Conservative Party leadership although, of course, it is always still mentioned in their election manifestos!

Not wishing to be out of step with what is fashionable at Central Office, Mr. Moynihan is against capital punishment. The problem is that his constituents, along with the rest of the British public, want hanging brought back.

When it became clear that Mr. Moynihan was going to have to vote in the House of Commons one way or the other it caused him a severe headache before he came up with his 'perfect solution'.

He carried out a sample referendum amongst his constituents which showed an overwhelming majority in favour of hanging. Knowing full well that when the House of Commons came to vote there would be a large majority against hanging, he dutifully voted in accordance with the wishes of his constituents.

Afterwards he was quoted as saying that although he had voted in favour of capital punishment, he was "delighted" that the vote had failed.

A FACE in the crowd. This is the last photograph taken of Albert Mariner. The picture was taken at the Tottenham election meeting shortly after the gang of rowdies led by Cllr. Brian Bullard had departed, and just before Mr. Mariner was taken to hospital. 24 hours later he was dead.

No. 49 AUGUST 1983

CORRUPTION INDUCED BY TERROR

WHEN anti-National Front rioters Kevin Gately and Blair Peach died after sustaining blows to the head while trying to prevent NF meetings enormous media publicity attended Coroners' Inquests, Police investigations, Judicial Inquiries and Home Secretaries' statements.

Albert Mariner died the day after sustaining a blow to his head during a riot outside an NF election meeting in Tottenham last May. He was not a rioter. He was walking peacefully to a meeting which a British Judge had authorised.

No blaze of publicity attended his death. There has been no Inquest, no Police investigation, no Judicial Inquiry and no statement from the Home Secretary.

The difference between the Establishment's reaction to the deaths of anti-NF rioters and the death of riot victim Albert Mariner is not merely another demonstration of the oppression which the NF has to contend with. It is a display of terror. The Establishment knows that the multi-racial society it built is an unstable timebomb. The prosecution of those who assembled and excited the mob which killed Albert Mariner could detonate it, hence the cover-up.

In the short term this situation is depressing. However, any society dependent on such corruption is headed for ultimate catastrophe. Therefore there are grounds for optimism in the long term.

NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism and to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in Britain, and not to the Immigrant people in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful — only "racial hatred".

ALBERT MARINER'S MURDER: THE FULL STORY

SINCE the report of Albert Mariner's death in our last issue we have been inundated with requests for fuller details.

We therefore publish an abridged version of a statement issued to selected Ministers, 50 MPs and the media by the Albert Mariner Public Inquiry Campaign.

We ask NF News readers to make this statement — especially the schedule of questions at the end — the basis of letters to their MPs and local media demanding an inquiry.

1. Following the elevation to the House of Lords of Mr. Mackintosh, the GLC member for Tottenham in the Borough of Haringey, a by-election was called for 5th May 1983. The National Front adopted Mr. John Donegan with Mr. Ian Anderson as Election Agent. The Adoption Meeting was held in Tottenham on 30th March. It was attended by 40 NF members including Mr. Albert Mariner, an OAP from Bethnal Green. The meeting also resolved to hold a public election meeting on 3rd May.

2. A few days later Mr. Anderson lodged Mr. Donegan's Nomination with the Returning Officer at Haringey Town Hall. He also booked a school hall for a public election meeting. Some days later a Council official contacted Mr. Anderson to say that the hall had been "accidentally double-booked". Mr. Anderson therefore submitted a further application for any one of 14 other school halls in the constituency.

3. With no word of confirmation coming from the Council after more than a week, Mr. Anderson commenced making telephone calls to Council officials. They refused to confirm a booking or to indicate whether or not the Council intended to reject the application. In view of this Mr. Donegan and Mr. Anderson contacted a Solicitor who made representations to the Council. On Friday 29th April — the day before a Bank Holiday long weekend — the Council undertook to provide High Cross Lower School.

4. Meanwhile school caretakers employed by the Council had held secret meetings with national officials of the General and Municipal Workers' Union and resolved not to open any hall to Mr.

Court Order and that action had to be organised to prevent the NF entering the hall. They therefore caused a leaflet to be published and distributed over the long weekend. The leaflet gave details of the location of the school and summoned a demonstration outside it from 5.30 pm. It indicated that the purpose of the demonstration was to prevent the NF entering the premises. It accused the NF of murdering Black people. This leaflet was denounced as an incitement to violence by the Conservative candidate.

7. The Police were aware of plans to prevent the meeting. An officer of Scotland Yard's A8 (Public Order) Branch was seconded to Tottenham Police station. Mr. Martin Webster, NF National Activities Organiser, informed this officer of the Injunctions and of the intention

12. Shortly afterwards Cllr. Brian Bullard, then Mayor of Haringey, and several companions (who had all been part of the demonstration outside) presented themselves at the door. Mr. Webster kept them out, saying that the hall was not yet open to the public. Cllr. Bullard said: "We'll see about that!" He returned a few moments later with the Police Commander in tow. The Commander told Mr. Webster: "These people are coming in!" The Commander took over control of admissions to the meeting without reference to Mr. Anderson, who was the meeting Chairman and hirer of the hall. The Commander later admitted a further 30 anti-NF demonstrators.

13. Inside the hall the NF members tended to sit towards the front. Between them and about 40 demonstrators were Waugh, who had also sustained a head injury, to be taken to hospital by ambulance. After treatment both men were allowed to go home.

18. After Cllr. Bullard and his companions left the hall Mr. Anderson called upon Mr. Donegan and Mr. Webster to address the meeting once again. The meeting continued for a further half an hour in good order. Afterwards the NF members were escorted from the school back to Tottenham Hale station by riot Police as the mob was still on the rampage. No NF members were arrested on that day.

19. At noon on the following day, 4th May, Mr. Victor Clark, an official of the Tower Hamlets NF Branch to which Mr. Mariner belonged, visited Mr. Mariner at his home. Mr. Mariner looked ill. He said he would probably feel better in a few days and would turn out as usual on the following Sunday morning to sell NF News at Brick Lane.

20. When Mr. Mariner did not arrive at Brick Lane the following Sunday by noon, Mr. Clark went to Mr. Mariner's home but could get no response. The Police were called and the circumstances explained. The Police broke in and found that Mr. Mariner was dead.

21. On 10th May Mr. Clark heard from Mr. Mariner's relations that the Police had reported that a doctor had determined that Mr. Mariner had died during pm on Wednesday, 4th May "from heart failure". Three years previously Mr. Mariner had an operation for a heart condition but had recovered his health and had frequently thereafter attended NF demonstrations without any effect. Mr. Mariner's friends formed the opinion that while a heart attack may have been the immediate cause of his death, the heart attack had been induced by the assault upon him the day before he died.

22. On 6th June Mr. Webster wrote to the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police requesting an interview. The Com-of NF campaign workers to assemble prior to the meeting at Tottenham Hale station at 7.00 pm.

8. Mr. Webster arrived at Tottenham Hale station at 7.00 pm. Mr. Mariner arrived shortly after. At 7.15 pm Mr. Webster was approached by the Commander of the local Police division. He said:

"I want you to abandon the meeting. A mob of about 600 people — mostly young Blacks — have assembled outside the school. We are having trouble keeping them under control. We believe some of them may be armed. If you take these people to the hall there is the likelihood of violence. Tell these people to go home!"

9. Mr. Webster replied: "I cannot call off the meeting. Why did you allow this mob to assemble? A High Court judge has ordered that our meeting must be allowed to proceed. If we abandoned this meeting because of the threat of mob violence, then a mob would be assembled to intimidate us into abandoning every other election meeting we tried to hold. You know that Councils all over the country ban us from hiring halls, and that the only chance we get to hold meetings is when we nominate a candidate. We cannot allow mob violence to deny us free speech."

10. At 7.45 pm Mr. Webster notified the Police he was moving off with the 50 NF members to the hall. Mr. Mariner was in the middle of the group. When the group was spotted by the mob a din of shouting went up. Members of the mob picked up bricks and hurled them. Others, armed with metal objects, attacked NF members. The attackers were fought off. A missile was seen to hit Mr. Mariner on the head and he had to be assisted into the school.

11. The NF group was met at the school door at 7.50 pm by Mr. Anderson. He said to Mr. Webster:

"You keep a couple here to guard the door while I take the rest up to the hall. Don't open to the public until you get word from me. When you do, don't allow in anybody who has been giving or offering violence."

a line of seated constables. On the platform were Mr. Anderson, Mr. Donegan and Mr. Webster. Pandemonium reigned before Mr. Anderson attempted to bring the meeting to order. He called upon Mr. Donegan then Mr. Webster to speak, and they did so, but they could not be heard above the din despite their use of a loud-speaker. Demonstrators continuously chanted, drummed their feet and used chairs as tom-toms. Several chairs were broken.

14. After 15 minutes of this Mr. Anderson concluded that the demonstrators were behaving in a disorderly manner for the purpose of preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting had been called. He therefore approached the Commander on several occasions, indicated individuals and requested that they be ejected. The Commander rejected his lawful requests. Later Mr. Webster reminded the Commander that a High Court judge had ordered that the meeting be allowed to take place. The Commander said to him:

"The judge said you could convene your meeting. That does not mean that your speakers have got a right to be heard."

15. Mr. Anderson and Mr. Webster discussed the situation and agreed that the Commander's attitude and conduct was prompted by his irritation at the NF's refusal to abandon the meeting and in order to 'balance' the forceful action which the Police were having to take against the rioters outside. By this time the mob had embarked on a looting rampage in Tottenham High Road and riot Police were deployed.

16. After the bedlam in the hall had continued for an hour, Cllr. Bullard realised that the NF was not going to abandon the meeting. He therefore led his supporters in singing The Red Flag and then trooped them out of the hall.

17. Shortly after this a kindly Police officer noted that Mr. Mariner was looking very ill and he arranged for him and another NF member, Mr. Clifford Donegan regardless of any decision by the Council. News of this was not released until just after business hours on Friday 29th April.

5. On the resumption of business on Tuesday 3rd May — the day of the meeting — the Council told Mr. Donegan's Solicitor that they would not, after all, provide a hall unless they were enjoined by the High Court. So Mr. Anderson applied in person to a High Court judge and by 3.00 pm Mandatory Injunctions were issued against the Council, the Council's Chief Education Officer, the GMWU and the caretaker of High Cross Lower School. The Orders were served by 4.30 pm and by 5.00 pm Mr. Anderson and Mr. Michael Hipperson, an NF News photographer, secured possession of the school.

6. Secret meetings had also been held involving individual members of the Council's Labour group, members of Tottenham Labour Party and persons associated with the Haringey Community Relations Council. They concluded that Mr. Donegan was likely to obtain a High circumstances of Mr. Mariner's death must be answered in the public interest:

24. THE LEAFLET: Who was responsible for its production and distribution? Was it produced via facilities owned/subsidised by Haringey Council? Was it adopted by a candidate in the election — if so, who? — or was it issued in contravention of electoral law? Will those responsible for it be prosecuted for procuring an unlawful assembly and/or inciting a riot? If the Police do not have a copy, why have they not contacted the Conservative candidate who does?

25. THE RIOT: Why did the Police allow the crowd to assemble at the only entrance to the school? Why did the Police not disperse the crowd when it became disorderly, when they apprehended that its members were armed and when they concluded that it was likely to riot?

26. THE MEETING: Why did the Police Commander usurp the authority of the Chairman in the matters of admissions to and ejections from the meeting? Was his assertion that the speakers "had no right to be heard" lawful?

27. MR. MARINER'S TREATMENT: In view of the extreme violence to which the NF members had been subjected, why did the Police not summon an ambulance for the injured until more than an hour had passed? Did the hospital issue the special card they are required to issue in the case of head injuries? What symptoms did Mr. Mariner complain of? Did he notify the hospital of his previous treatment for heart trouble? Did he discharge himself against medical advice? Did the hospital contact his local GP?

28. THE POST MORTEM: Was the doctor who carried out the post mortem examination aware that the day before he died Mr. Mariner had been hit on the head by a brick? Did he make a special examination of the brain, and if so, what were his findings?

29. THE CORONER: Was the Coroner aware that the day before Mr. Mariner died he had been hit on the head by a brick? If not, why not? If he was aware of the fact, why did he not deem it appropriate to hold an Inquest to determine the full causes of Mr. Mariner's death?

30. THE COVER-UP: Why did the media uniformly stifle any mention of Mr. Mariner's death even though all major newsdesks were circulated with a Press Statement on or about 11th May? Why did the Police Commissioner fail to respond to a letter dated 6th June until 11th July — i.e. immediately after it became known that the Albert Mariner Public Inquiry Campaign was being set up?

missioner did not cause a subordinate officer to respond until 11th July (by 2nd class post). The reply contained no information not available to the Police on 10th June. Specific questions were ignored, as was the request for an interview. A request for an inquiry into Mr. Mariner's death was rejected. The Police claimed they did not have a copy of the leaflet which assembled the mob.

23. A meeting of friends of the late Albert Mariner was held on 13th July at which the Albert Mariner Public Inquiry Campaign was formed. A committee was elected comprising: Mr. George Wilson BEM (President); Mrs. Peggy Caine (Chairman); Mr. Ian Anderson (Secretary); Mr. John Donegan (Treasurer) and Mr. Martin Webster (Information Officer). The meeting also resolved that the following questions relating to the

PETROL—THE BIG SWINDLE

ON 1st JULY British Petroleum announced that they were putting up petrol prices by 8p to 187.1p per gallon. Almost immediately Texaco, Mobil and Total all followed suit raising their prices for four star petrol to an identical 187.1p per gallon.

The news media howled at the increase, demanding to know why their readers should be expected to pay this extra 8p at a time when world oil prices were relatively stagnant.

On 5th July perhaps the most unlikely 'shining white knight' of all time emerged in the form of the giant multinational Exxon Corporation. They announced that they were "only" going to increase prices by 4.6p per gallon.

"COMPETITION"

The newspapers trumpeted their approval of this "free market competition" and within days Texaco, Mobil, Total and BP all announced that they had been forced to follow suit, reducing their increase to an identical 4.6p.

The end result of all this playing was that the giant oil companies had pushed through a price rise of 4.6p per gallon and the vast majority of the British public had been conned into believing that thanks to the competition between the oil companies they had been spared an 8p increase.

BP Chairman Peter Walters on £3,000 a week

But then the big oil companies have always been good at conning both the public and national governments.

BP had originally justified the price rise by claiming that it was necessary to "cover losses in the British petrol market."

But BP doesn't just sell petrol in garages, it owns the wells which drill for oil, it owns the ships which transport the oil and the refineries which convert it into usable petrol.

By increasing the profits which derive from one section of this operation it is quite possible to show a loss in another without affecting the overall profit of the parent company, and of course this "loss" can then be used to justify a price increase.

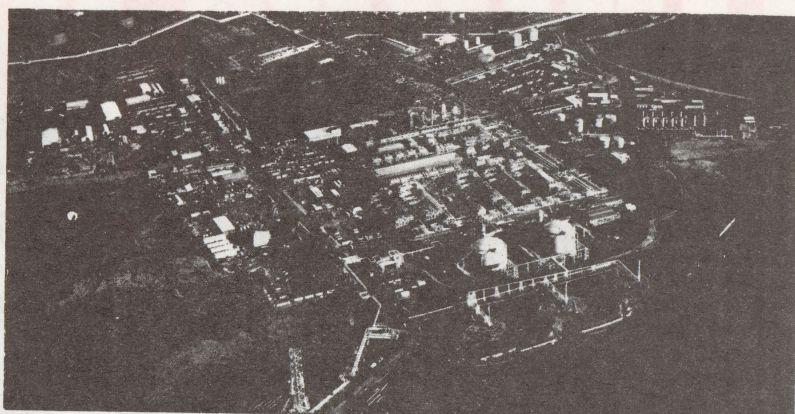

In the case of BP such an operation is a matter of simplicity as the parent company has over 1550 subsidiaries spread across 67 countries.

VAST PROFIT

This switching of profits cannot however be hidden in the final consolidated company report and when this is examined it can be seen that in 1982 BP made an overall operating profit of £2,999 million.

According to one firm of petroleum economists the profit from the actual sale of oil products in Britain is amongst the highest in Western Europe. However BP still refer to the "erosion of profits" when justifying the savage job losses which they have imposed over the last year.

At the same time as they cut the

The Sullom Voe North Sea oil terminal. The discovery of oil in the North Sea hasn't done anything to hold down petrol prices in Britain. While oil companies claim a 'loss' on their petrol sales operations, their separate refining companies always produce huge and ever increasing profits. number of their UK employees by 4300, over 10% of the total workforce, the Board of Directors still saw fit to pay their Chairman, Peter Walters, an extra £14,619 bringing his salary to £172,770 — over £3000 each week!

Despite the fact that British Petroleum is 39% Government owned its Board of Directors is still dominated by bankers — Lloyds International, Standard Chartered and Barings being well to the fore — as are all the other giant oil companies.

Their greed for money overrules any concern for Britain or any other nation — which is perhaps why Tom Jackson, formerly of the Post Office Union, does not advertise his place on the Board of BP.

Marxists plan education misery for White kids

PLANS to condition young white people into accepting the multi-racial society were revealed in July. The National Union of Teachers have produced a policy document entitled "Combating Racism in Schools".

The document instructs teachers to send home pupils who "behave in a racist manner", to confiscate "racist" literature and report the matter to the Police for possible prosecution under the Race Relations Act; and to suspend or expel pupils who "insult Black people".

The report is an updated version of a guide first issued two years ago.

The NUT executive has since agreed to amend the union's ethics and conduct codes to forbid teachers to behave in a racist manner.

Plans to teach school pupils to "identify, resist and remove racism" are also being considered by the Inner London Education Authority.

Although these plans were prepared by the Labour leader of ILEA, Frances Morrell, some of the proposals are borrowed from Conservative authorities such as Berkshire and Bradford. If approved the plans will mean:

- "Black experience, perspectives and culture" will be given increased emphasis in schools.
- Courses will be given to school caretakers, dinner ladies and secretaries, as well as for teachers on how to combat racialism.

- Voting positions will be allocated to non-elected Blacks on Committees which decide how to spend ratepayers' money.

- A 750-word "anti-racist statement" will have to be displayed in every ILEA school and college.

Frances Morrell was only recently elected ILEA leader but she has already demonstrated her obsessional and fanatic multi-racialism.

She was a platform speaker at a meeting at County Hall called to begin "a major effort by joining your Black brothers and sisters in demanding that our employers live up to their declared policy as an 'equal opportunities employer'."

Not only is the thinking of those, like Frances Morrell, who are ideologically committed to multi-racialism out of tune with the White community — their plans will not even be welcomed by many Black people.

Many Black people, particularly Indians, are anxious to maintain their own distinct identity and resist what they see as the "tainting" of their children with Western values.

The Department of Education now knows of eight Moslem private schools and one Hindi, scattered around the country from Gloucestershire to Kirkcaldy.

In addition, Moslem communities in Bradford and Sheffield have announced their intention of opening fee-paying schools. Separate schools such as these will illustrate the practical advantages of the separate education of the races.

White children will no doubt enjoy banging oil drums — but what will this teach them about their own cultural heritage?

LEARN RAIN-DANCING ON THE RATES

SHORTLY after announcing a plan to spend £200,000 on subsidising Black-owned businesses, the West Midlands County Council has now dreamed up another lunatic multi-racial scheme to fritter away ratepayers' money:

Funding trips by West Indians to Ghana in West Africa so that they can learn rain-dancing and other voodoo rites!

The scheme is being organised by the Handsworth Cultural Centre (ho ho!) and will in all cost about £15,000 from grants paid by various public bodies including the WMCC who propose to put up £1,000.

The idea is that when the "dance pupils" return they can tour schools and youth clubs in the county passing on their valuable knowledge.

The proposed grant was, of course, stoutly defended by West Indian Labour Councillor James Hunte. He said:

"I believe in Adam and Eve, Jesus Christ and the Virgin Mary. The cultures and religions of other people should be respected — rain and fertility dances and all!"

BLACK VIGILANTES' HYMN OF HATE

CAN you imagine what would happen to the editor of a pro-White, anti-Communist paper which promoted a vigilante group and incited its members to kill Communists and engage the Police in a terrorist war?

He would be clapped into jail in a trice!

Yet the editor of an extreme Marxist paper called Fight Racism — Fight Imperialism is still at liberty after publishing last April a 'poem' called "The Black Vigilantes".

"LIKE THE I.R.A."

"The Black Vigilantes are here to stay/Up town, down town we are always around/To stamp the Frontman into the ground/If the Frontmen come we will not run/Before we do that we'll take up the gun/If the policeman come in our way/We'll fight for our freedom like the IRA/BLACK VIGILANTES!"

Two Black Vigilantes dressed in IRA style hoods give the Communist salute.

MURDER! MURDER!"

One line in the 'poem' says "Black Vigilantes are both Black and White", but this is clearly somebody's idea of a clever ploy to avoid a Race Act prosecution.

Be that as it may, a Race Act charge is the least of the offences which should be preferred against such a direct incitement to violence.

The Black Vigilantes, it seems, are more than just a figment of the imagination of the illiterate moron who wrote the 'poem'.

The paper published an account of the activities of the Leeds-based group as well as a photograph of two of its members dressed in IRA-style hoods.

MOB-HANDED

According to the report, the Black Vigilantes wander mob-handed around Leeds City Centre beating up White youngsters who do not exhibit a necessary degree of pro-Black sentiment, such as wearing Rastafarian red, gold and green emblems!

The way things are going, so far from being prosecuted, the Black Vigilantes and their Communist promoters are likely to get an Arts Council grant!

BLUES PARTIES "STOP CRIME"

POLICE in Nottingham are allowing 'Blues' parties to continue from midnight until 6 am after members of the Black community told them that crime would go up if the parties were stopped.

Chief Inspector Ian Moody said the Police did not want to stop the parties but just wanted the noise levels reduced to minimise the discomfort of the residents who had complained.

He was speaking after being given an ultimatum by the organiser of the parties, Derek McKenzie:

"If you stop the blues you'll have hassle back on the streets. If it wasn't for the parties, burglaries and bag snatches from old ladies would go up!"

The lack of Police action has angered the residents of Hyson Green flats where the parties take place. Despite complaints of noise so loud that no one could sleep (youths shouting, cars racing around the streets and as many as 300 people congregating on the balcony outside the flats), Inspector Moody stated:

"We have no wish to deny people the opportunity of gathering socially."

The 'Blues' parties are just one of an increasing number of incidents where the upholding of law and order in Nottingham is being sacrificed by the Police for fear of upsetting the Immigrant community.

Only last month Police were prevented from arresting two Black men after they were pursued into the Cricket Players public house in Hyson Green.

BOTTLES HURLED

As the officers tried to follow the men into the pub, those inside started to hurl broken beer bottles and glasses at them.

Inspector John Woodhouse admitted afterwards:

"With a large number of people outside the pub the officers realised that if they made an arrest a serious breach of the peace would have occurred, so they decided not to."

The Immigrant community in Nottingham have made it clear to both the Police and the local Council that unless they are allowed to do exactly as they like, there will be a recurrence of the riots of 1981.

'Blues' parties have been known to go on not just all night, but day and night for more than a week. Drugs are often peddled and booze sold illegally. Sometimes empty houses are taken over by commercial party promoters who move in 'sound systems' whose thumping din is heard blocks away. Such "social gatherings" often end in riots.

"We want to go home!"

YET another organisation representing Immigrants in Britain has reported that large numbers of Black people would like nothing better than to be repatriated to their lands of ethnic origin.

The latest report comes from the West Indian Movement which has just completed a survey among West Indian people resident in all parts of Britain.

The movement's leader, Mr. Michael Williams, has recently written to Britain's new minority-ethnic Home Secretary, Leon Brittan, saying:

"Our research shows well over 250,000 West Indians would support a voluntary repatriation scheme. We must have positive action to assist those substantial numbers who are trapped in Britain."

Mr. Williams told Mr. Brittan that he had founded the West Indian Movement in order to bring together all West Indians who would like to return home but could not afford to do so.

More and more sensible Black people are coming to see that Coloured Immigration was as much a disaster for them as it was for the British people.

Let us hope they are all praying hard for a National Front government. They will get no help from Mr. Brittan!

ESSEX BOBBIES SHAME THE YARD

The Barking Branch Banner heads the NF column as it marches towards Thurrock Town Centre. Local people joined in.

Nicholas Griffin, Assistant Editor of Nationalism Today, addresses the rally held after the march. There were no disorders.

Among placards carried on the march were some advertising the march and rally organised by the Albert Mariner Public Inquiry Campaign.

ONCE again Scotland Yard bosses succumbed to political pressures and banned a local march through Barking planned by the East London Region of the National Front for 16th July.

The activity had been called to protest against a recent spate of racial attacks on local schoolchildren by gangs of Asians from inner East London.

On Thursday 14th July NF Deputy-Chairman Ian Anderson agreed a route with Commander Hunt of 'K' Division of the Metropolitan Police. It was pointed out that with no prior public advertising of the event there was no likelihood of disorder.

However at 5.00 pm the following day Mr. Anderson was served with a Public Order Act march ban which predicted "the likelihood of serious disorders." An alternative plan was therefore put into effect.

After preliminary phone calls to the Essex Police, NF officials visited Thurrock Police station where they notified Chief Inspector Ansell of their intention to stage a march in the town.

"WE CAN COPE"

Despite the very short notice caused by the Yard's unnecessary ban, Chief Inspector Ansell agreed a route and indicated that his local force would be quite sufficient to cope.

To the consternation of Commander Hunt, hundreds of his 'K' Division men and Special Branch 'spooks' from the Yard, more than 150 NF members gathered at 2.00 pm at the assembly place agreed before the ban - Barking station.

Commander Hunt seemed totally unaware of the NF's alternative arrangements (perhaps the Essex Police were getting their own back) and NF officials did not enlighten him.

It was only when NF members boarded a train for the short journey out of the Metropolitan Police District into Essex did Commander Hunt and his 'K' (Keystone) cops realise what was going on.

Some NF members were unable to make the journey from Barking, but their number was more than made up by Thurrock people who joined in as the march went through the town centre.

The march ended with a rally. There were no disorders or arrests. The Essex Police are owed a vote of thanks from the NF - and an apology from Scotland Yard.

RED BULLIES FIND THEIR WAY FROM HAMMERSMITH TO HOSPITAL

WHEN 20 year old Cliff Waugh (left), the organiser of Hammersmith Branch, and his two pals Lawrence and George go to sell NF News at Hammersmith Broadway, they seek a peaceful environment in which to sell their papers.

On the morning of Saturday 4th June, however, things did not go peacefully at all. A member of the Revolutionary Communist Party thought the youngsters looked a pushover, so he incited three Black mugger types to attack them.

Within a minute the Blacks scampered away with bloody noses - and the Red rushed off to get reinforcements.

Shortly after 11 'heavies' from local units of the RCP, the SWP and Red Action arrived and renewed the attack.

For five minutes a vicious brawl raged. Hundreds of shoppers - who had seen who started the trouble - gathered round to give the three NF lads (verbal) support.

Though they sustained injuries, Cliff and Lawrence lashed out with fists and boots and George swung his motorcycle helmet with deadly effect.

WARRIOR TRADITION

One by one the Red bullies dropped out of the action leaving trails of blood behind them as they fled to hospital.

The onlookers cheered and old ladies picked up money which the Reds had dropped and gave it to the NF lads saying: "Never mind, ducks! You did ever so well!"

This scene freaked-out the last of the Red thugs who cowered in a shop doorway nursing a split head. He shrieked:

"What are you helping them for? They're a menace! They should be behind bars!"

Within minutes the lads resumed their newspaper sale.

Hammersmith Branch has a long-established warrior tradition. The present Branch Chairman, Graham Gillmore, took a holiday from NF work in 1977 to serve as a Commando with the South African Army.

He was wounded during a raid into Angola and returned to Britain last year. He was the NF candidate for Windsor and Maidenhead in the General Election.

Graham Gillmore in Xangongo, Angola, on 26th August 1981, after helping to liquidate a nest of Marxist terrorists. There were several NF men in his unit.

COLERAINE RALLY

MORE than 150 people attended a National Front public meeting at the Town Hall in Coleraine, Northern Ireland on Saturday 9th July. The hall was hired to the NF by the local Council without any quibble.

Speakers at the meeting were given an enthusiastic reception by the mainly young audience. The speakers were: Ian Anderson, NF Deputy-Chairman; Martin Webster, NF National Activities Organiser; and Joe Pearce, Organiser of the Young National Front.

Meeting Chairman was Jim Morrison, Organiser of the Belfast NF Group.

FLOOD OF ENQUIRIES

The NF officials' visit to Northern Ireland was prompted by the flood of enquiries about the party from the province prompted by the NF's TV election broadcast.

Until recently the NF only had two small units in Northern Ireland - in Belfast and Coleraine. But now those units look set to become full branches, and new Groups are in process of formation in several other towns.

Apart from the rally, talks were held with local officials about the development of the party in their areas during the next year. Several expressed a keenness to nominate candidates in local elections.

Struggle in the courts

ELEVEN National Front members currently face Crown Court trials or Appeals. Each of the three cases involved constitutes an attempt by the authorities to deny to the NF the Right of Free Speech and the Right of Assembly.

Michael Burroughs and Robert Young of Newham Branch and Ian Newport of Redbridge Branch each face Race Relations Act charges in connection with the photo-booklet We Are NF.

They were remanded for trial at Snaresbrook Crown Court later this year at Thames Magistrates Court in July. A Race Act charge against Mr. Young involving the NF sticker "Send them Back" was dropped.

Ian Anderson of Newham Branch; Paul Johnson of Dover Branch; Jim Sneath, Tony Hussey and Steven Baker of Southwark Branch; and Kevin Simes and Raymond Morrison of Dartford all face "Unlawful Assembly" charges at Maidstone Crown Court later this year. They were prosecuted after attempting to deliver a petition to the Civic offices at Gravesend after the Council had refused to hire Mr. Johnson, the NF's local candidate, a hall for an Adoption Meeting.

Martin Webster of Wandsworth Branch, is to Appeal later this year at Birmingham Crown Court against convictions for "organising" and "conducting" an "unlawful" anti-IRA march in 1982.

OVERSEAS SUBSCRIBERS WELCOMED

GET SKREWDRIVER'S 'WHITE POWER' RECORD

SKREWDRIVER are a well known 'skinhead' band who are also British patriots and racial nationalists. Consequently, despite a very large following not only in London but as far away as Scotland and Northern Ireland, they have been 'blackened' by the music-business establishment.

They cannot find places to play, music papers will not interview them or carry their adverts, and the record industry will not produce their records.

It would have been easy for Skrewdriver to drop their political views in an attempt to curry favour with the people who control the music industry but this they were not prepared to do.

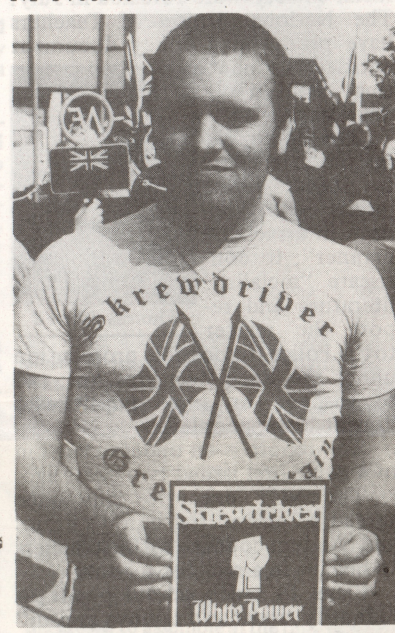

As a result of their hard work and their refusal to compromise their views, Skrewdriver have held onto their fans and have been able to carry on doing live 'gigs' - sometimes booking the halls themselves and sometimes appearing at Rock Against Communism concerts.

Now the National Front has been able to help them even more. A company has been set up - White Noise Records - which has just produced a Skrewdriver EP.

This record is called "White Power" which is the title of one track, the other two tracks being "Smash the IRA" and "Shove the Dove".

promoting the new record on the NF's recent march in Thurrock.
